

I oppose the expansion of deregulation to allow for more concentration of ownership of media. This is against the principles of a free press guaranteed in our constitution. There are already problems with radio stations owned by the same company sending out "suggestions" that music from some people not be played. This can and will be expanded to include news if this concentration of media ownership is allowed to continue.